

New GRAMMAR MAGIC

4

Apply to the new set of the book now

CLASS IV

CH-31

CONJUNCTIONS

PART 2

- EX F Combine these pairs of sentences with appropriate correlative conjunctions

- I want to buy both a pen and a notebook.
- This plant neither has any flowers nor any fruit.
- Both Archie and Joseph are my friends.
- Neither the zebra nor the horse is dangerous.
- The boys play both football and cricket every evening.
- Please tell me either I have passed the exams or not.
- We will sell not only the house but also the land.
- My mother has packed neither the toothbrush nor the toothpaste.
- Either Gunjan or Heena will come first in the class this time.
- The farmer bought both the ducks and the chicks.

• EX G: Underline the conjunctions in these sentences

- Most children are fond of candies and cookies.
- Would you like coffee or a lemonade?
- He had invited everybody for the meeting but only two people turned.
- Jenny hates swimming, but she spends her summer holidays on the beach because she loves sunbathing.
- My brother is calm and easy going but my sister is not, so they never agree with each other.
- It was windy and stormy yesterday.
- My uncle looked different with the beard, so I could not recognise him.

- What she says and what she does are completely different.
- He goes to the theatre because he likes to watch play.
- Jane Austen and Virginia Woolf are my favourite authors.

- EX H: Use and, but, or, because to join the sentences

- She is always late but She is the best student in the class.
- I do not really like spaghetti but I can eat lasagne any day.
- We were late for the cinema because Shyam came late from school.
- She is getting good grades because she is studying very hard.
- He wanted to go for the picnic but his mother refused.
- The tomato soup is spicy but delicious.
- I take sprouts or/and fresh fruits for breakfast.
- Those people cannot read or/and write.

- EX I: Fill in the blank's using appropriate conjunctions from the box given below some can be used twice.

- We stopped and bought some bread and eggs on our way.
- I complained against them because they lied to me.
- She wants either the cake or the pie.
- My brother is fond of me but he annoys me often.
- His new home is not only comfortable but also very spacious.
- I had no choice but to sign the contract.
- Both Mishra and Roma are going for the poetry meet.

- Would you like cake or cookies with your tea?
- After dinner, we'll go for a walk.
- We can either go to the market or to the cafe.